BRIEF MENTIONINGS.

Events in and About the City Given in a Nutshell.

The council committee on health has been called to meet next Friday evening, instead of to-night.

Yesterday afternoon at Wheeling Park, the attraction was the concert by the Grand Army band, of Canton, which drew a very large crowd.

Charles R. Retzer, a well known cigarmaker, died last evening suddenly at the home of his brother-in-law, William Salade, aged fifty-three years.

Invitations have been issued for the first sommernachtsfest of the 1900 season of the Opera House band. It occurs to-morrow evening, at Wheeling Park.

The Empire Athletic Club, of Benwood, gave an excursion to Sistersville yesterday, that was largely patronized. Heatherington's band, of Bellaire, made the music for the occasion.

The board of county commissioners meets to-day to take up the ordinance providing for a vote of the people on the proposition of his suburban $500,000 to the stock of the Uniontown, Waynesburg & West Virginia Railroad Company.

An artificially arranged display of stuffed birds is on exhibition in the Hub's Market street window, and on the second floor of the store there is a more extensive display. There are many beautiful specimens and all are owned by Prof. Schurr.

Last evening at 5 o'clock, at the Noble street crossing of the Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling railroad, in Bellaire, Thomas Curtis, the ten-year-old son of G. W. Curtis, had his right foot cut off. He had jumped a freight train, and his foot, dragged and was cut under the wheels. Amputation was necessary.

The doors of the Grand Central hotel's dining room are closed, and above them hangs a notice to the effect that the service will resume to-morrow morning. At the end of last month the corps of colored waiters was released by the management, with the intention of replacing them with white girls, who were billed to arrive the next day. Owing to a misunderstanding the fair waitresses did not arrive as per schedule, but they will be on hand to-morrow.

GNASHING OF TEETH GALORE

Is in Evidence in Upper Part of Marshall County Over the Twenty Per Cent Advance

ON DECENNIAL APPRAISEMENT.

The Advance Will be Resisted, and if Necessary, an Injunction Will be Sought.

While Ohio county people are congratulating themselves upon the cut made in the decennial reassessment in both the city and country districts, there is wailing and gnashing of teeth galore in the first assessment district of Marshall county, in which are included both Benwood, McMechen and Moundsville, where the state board of equalization and appeals has ordered a general advance of 20 per cent over the appraisement as made by Assessor J. T. Roseberry.

Assessor Roseberry received information of the advance Friday, in the shape of a telegram from the clerk of the state board, and he at once took steps to have the matter placed before the county court, which has been called to meet in Moundsville Tuesday morning.

Mr. Roseberry states to the Intelligencer that the advance in the assessment will be resisted. The first step will be taken at the meeting of the county court to-morrow, when it is likely that the state board will be asked to grant the Marshall county people a hearing. If the board will not rescind its action, it is said the circuit court will be asked to grant an injunction, restraining the board and sheriff from carrying out the increase. Says Mr. Roseberry:

"The first assessment district already shows an increase of $300,000 or $300,000, and in the Second district there was a decrease of nearly one-third. Yet the state board adds 20 per cent to the district that shows such a heavy increase already, and doesn't even raise the Second district, with its equally heavy decrease, a penny. Our Marshall county people see nothing just in this proceeding, and we won't stand it if there is any law to protect us."

"I wouldn't be surprised to learn that the state board was influenced in making this advance by recent transactions in real estate in upper Benwood, in which the National Tube Company figured as purchaser. We all know here, of course, that the company paid several prices for each piece of property it acquired, but that is no reason for advancing the assessment. I know of one piece of property that was assessed at $1,800, sold a year ago for $1,200, and recently it was bought by the National Tube Company for $7,000. But that's no ground for raising the assessment beyond what it was."
